

A Message from David

It's always hard to put into words exactly what you feel deep inside. From the first time I stepped on to a stage to sing, I knew that I wanted to try to get across some kind of message.

The meaning is quite simple, but it's very important to me. When I sing I want people to know that I hope I'm bringing them happiness just as they've brought it to me.

David