

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF david cassidy

David Cassidy works pretty hard for his living! It's a full time job recording all week, and he plays live shows at the weekend in towns all over America and Europe. So however hard and long you work at school or in the office—David works harder and longer!

5.30am David's alarm clock rings loud and long, and he gets up to have a shower. He washes his hair every day so it stays absolutely clean and shiny.

6.30am He's out on the film set for The Partridge Family series, along with the rest of the family. It may only be a half-hour programme, shown once a week, but each scene has to be absolutely perfect before they can start on the next one. That takes time; sometimes they have to film just one scene, fifteen seconds long, as many as thirty times! It may take them a whole morning to get it just right.

12.00 noon Filming stops, and David goes for
