

"Me too!" he says laughing.

"Okay, here's the question. I've been looking at some photographs over the years David, and I'm guessing here, and I may be wrong, but it looks as though you've had a few follicles inserted. Is it the case?"

There's a pause, and then a slight laugh from the Hairgod.

"You know, no one has ever asked me about this. But yes. Back in 1990 I once had a part in a little movie made by Francis Ford Coppola's company called Spirit of '76, about time travellers.

"And Coppola wanted me to have the '76 hairstyle. And so I grew it out, and it looked pretty much like it once did. But I noticed that it wasn't quite the same."

The Hairgod turned time traveller had been affected by the ravages of time.

And the evil DHT.

"I was missing part of my hair line. And the back was a bit thin. And I thought 'Jesus!' So I figured 'I'll go in and have it fixed.' And I did."

David took himself off to one of the best transplant surgeons in the States.

"And they put 60 grafts in my hair, these micrografts. And it was friggin' painful. Unfortunately I have a very sensitive scalp and a really low threshold for it. And I suffered.

"But I went through with it."

And again, one more time.

"Then I said to myself that next time I'd really go through with it. So I went back and said to give me the maximum amount of grafts they could, but the most they would do is 200 grafts.
