

dear editor...

David Cassidy fan who's written to us, Gerry. We've received tons of letters asking about this new star. Since pleasing teens is our business—we've got facts and pix galore in this very issue!

MUCH OBLIGED

Dear Editor:

June TEEN WORLD was outasite! I've been a big fan of yours for a couple of years but I think you really out-did yourselves with this issue. All my favs were featured in pix and stories—especially The Beatles. They're the greatest and no other magazine writes about them anymore. Thanks, TEEN WORLD, for "Keeping Up With The Beatles."

Rosemary B., Linden, N.J.

HAPPILY EVER AFTER

Dear Editor:

Today I bought a copy of TEEN WORLD just to see what it's like. I enjoyed it more than any other magazine I've ever read. I sure hope TEEN WORLD stays on the market for a long, long time because I'm going to buy it from now on. I'm looking forward to many happy hours of reading the best magazine around!

Jane C., Marion, Ohio

SORRY

Dear Editor:

I would appreciate it very much if you would print this letter. My name was placed in the Pen Pal section of TEEN WORLD for April. Since the day it hit the stands, people have been sending me letters. I've gotten over 150 letters from girls in the U.S. alone, and they're still coming! I just want to say I'm sorry I can't answer everyone who's written. It's simply impossible! But I do want to take this opportunity to thank everyone for writing.

Peter Owens, Carlisle, Mass.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Thanks, Peter, for your thanks and your apology. Yours is just one of the many, many letters we get saying exactly the same thing. Sometimes it's just impossible for would-be pen pals to answer all the letters they receive. It's a disappointment to the senders and the receivers... but it doesn't have to be a total wash-out. IDEA: Why can't the letter receivers give some of the mail to their friends to answer? That will mean new friends for a lot more people—and make the happy world of pen pals even bigger!

COUNTING ON US

Dear Editor:

I really dig Barry Williams but every magazine I read hardly prints anything about him. TEEN WORLD is the exception! I'm counting on you, TW, to print more articles on this groovy guy. I'm sure there are many more teens who feel the same way I do.

Jeannie V., Brooklyn, N.Y.

THRILLED

Dear Editor:

Wow!—that was the only word to describe my feelings. After my sister picked me up off the floor and seated me comfortably in an easy chair, I was really able to enjoy "Peek Into Zooey Hall's Bedroom" in April TEEN WORLD. It was 100 times better than wow!

Gloria T., Sarasota, Florida

HORRIFIED

Dear Editor:

I was absolutely horrified by the story in your April issue—"Peek Into Zooey's Bedroom." And to think—I almost fell for him! Who does he think he is—Mr. America? Far from it! I think he's nothing but a slob! I hope the next time I see him, he looks a little more human.

Pam. J., Quincy, Mass.

TEENS ASK FOR DAVID

Dear Editor:

I'm writing to tell you how much I enjoy your magazine. I always look for it and buy it as soon as it comes out. TEEN WORLD is really fab!

I'd like to ask you to please print a story and some pix of David Cassidy. My cousin and I saw him on TV. We love him and we'd like to find out something about him. Please, don't let us down!

Gerry S., Spokane, Wash.

EDITOR'S NOTE: You're not the only

FANTASTIC

Dear Editor:

Your magazine is fantastic! I just finished reading the June issue and I can honestly say you out-shine all the others. Jack Wild's my favorite and I'm really glad TEEN WORLD does him justice. I have only one thing to say to Pat J. of the Bronx, who put him down—she should grow up and learn what good talent really is!

Alice M., Fresno, Calif.

A TEEN'S PLEA

Dear Editor:

I'm really happy that my magazine stand carried the June issue of TEEN WORLD. It's the most interesting issue you've ever printed—full of juicy little tid-bits on lots of groovy people. But, please don't spoil your next issue by putting Tom Jones anywhere near it! When I see him on TV, I feel like kicking in the set—anything to keep from seeing his ugly face. Please, don't ruin TW and make me suffer anymore!

Karen M., Wilmington, Delaware

WHAT'S HAPPENING

Dear Editor:

I've been reading your magazine for a long time and I have one thing to say—it's great! It really gives teens a chance to catch up with what's happening with the stars. Keep up the good work!

Sandy T., Hartsville, Tenn.

WATCHING AND WAITING

Dear Editor:

Thanks for filling me in on Engelbert. I watch his show every week and I think he's just super. I sure hope you'll be printing lots more pictures and stories on him in the future. I'll be waiting!

Jean D., Rutland, Vt.
