CLOSE YOUR EYES, 16 SPEC-ers, cos you're off on a fabulous flight of fancy! Imagine yourself as one of three super-lucky girls who get to play ABC-TV's smash show The Dating Game! And imagine too that the groovy guy asking the questions and maybe choosing you as his date is none other than David Cassidy! For three girls this was no dream but a very real thing — and one of them was picked by dashing David as his date! Now pretend you're one of those girls — and let's go play The Dating Game!!

Darling David sits back calmly — trying to decide whether his first question is going to be easy or a stumper. David couldn't lose The Dating Game cos he did all the asking (how could he lose anyway — with that smile!!)

His decision is made — a stumper! "If I took you out really nice one night, to a fancy place for dinner, and when the bill came I discovered that I had left my wallet at home — what would you do?" (What would you do?) →

And now we get ready for the big moment when The Dating Game gets down to the "nitty gritty" — and adorable David thinks over all the answers to his questions and makes his decision. Will he choose Lori, Linda or Debra? (Any guesses?)

Sorry Linda and Debra — better luck next time (but what could be a better "prize" than David?!). Wearing a smile of anticipation on his fabulous face, David gets set to meet the girl he selected on the grooviest game show on the air!
