

FLASHES...FLASHES...

trying to stop the U.S. Army from demanding that he cut his hair? A lot—because Don Agrati is DON GRADY's real name and he's the guy with the hairy problem! Don, currently in the reserves, has to report to the Army one weekend in every month. And it seems that the Army thinks his hair is too long—they've threatened to re-activate him, in fact, if he doesn't cut it. Besides the fact that Don thinks he should be allowed to wear his hair the length he likes, his position is that the length of his hair is necessary for the role he plays on "My Three Sons." The producers of the show agree. They supplied him with a letter saying so to fight the Army with.

FLASH... GLEN CAMPBELL had a fine honor bestowed on him not too long ago. He was named as a life member of the National Cowboy Hall of Fame and put his name in cement during special ceremonies held at the organization's headquarters in Oklahoma City.

FLASH... When DONOVAN begins his tour in September, he'll have a whole new look. With him, for example, will be a new backing group, THE OPEN ROAD. Don will also be traveling in high style—on the high seas—on his 117 ft. yacht. The tour, by the way, will hit all the major cities in the world and may just last for the whole year!

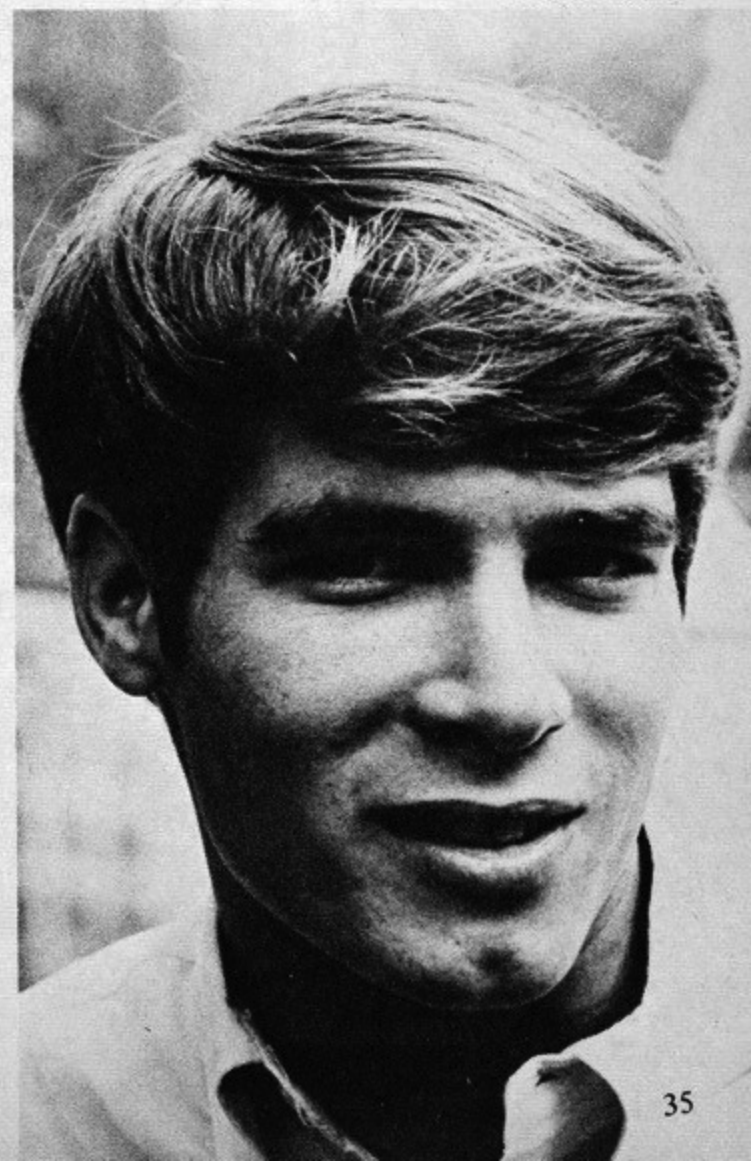

FLASH... Tell your parents that the team of MARTIN AND LEWIS is together again! But tell them we mean two of the kids of the original duo. GARY LEWIS (son of JERRY) and DEANA MARTIN (daughter of DEAN) teamed up for a Las Vegas appearance awhile back. They liked the arrangement so much, they decided to stay together... and will be making records and possibly a TV series in the future.

FLASH... A brand-new group from England, called THE BUGALOOS, will be appearing on a weekly TV show next season, will be making singles and albums and possibly a feature movie! The talented people causing all this stir are: JOHN McINDOE (called IQ), age 22, formerly road manager for the group The Love Affair, CAROLINE ELLIS (called Joy), age 19, JOHN PHILPOTT (called Courage), age 20 and WAYNE LARYEA (called Harmony), age 18.
