

DAVID'S SECRET

CHARMING, HANDSOME David Cassidy is a guy on top of the world, and happy to be there. He stars in a successful television show, is totally independent and has fans all over the world. But there are some special loves in David's life. Read on and find out the secret things that turn him on!

NEW GIRLS

David gets a thrill every time he meets a new girl—and you can believe he meets many. Like practically everybody, he used to be shy, and very anxious about meeting a member of the opposite sex. In some ways, he still is. Even so, he still thinks "it's the greatest feeling in the world to discover a new person!"

MUSIC AND ACTING

David can't get over the joy of being able to combine two of his special loves—acting and music. He gets to do both every week on "The Partridge Family," and thinks he's got the greatest job in the world! As for his future, David doesn't put any limits on his career . . . he'll be happy in whatever he does. He says, "I'd like to pursue music, but I don't let my future preoccupy me. If I want to do something, I'll do it." And you can bet David's talent will bring him success in any work he does!

GETTING AWAY

Although David's spare time is almost non-existent, he does try to travel whenever he can. Being able to climb into his Mustang and look for new places to explore is a thrill he hopes to have always. One of David's favorite "get-away spots" is the country. But he loves it as a place of privacy as well as beauty. "I just like being out
