

THRILLS

where everybody's not all crowded around me," is David's way of praising a country visit.

Traveling is also a way of relaxing for David. He leads such a busy life, on the set and off, that a change of scenery is enough to perk him up for the next studio call or press tour.

SPORTS

A good-looking guy like David keeps himself in shape by always being active. For one thing, he loves water-skiing—Lake Mead, in Colorado, is his favorite spot. At one time, too, David was an accomplished basketball player, though now, at 5'8", he admits he'd find the competition rough! Instead, David enjoys a game of tennis. Most recently, he began taking scuba-diving lessons. (It looks like our boy is an expert on both land and sea!)

EVENING ENTERTAINMENT

When David's out on a date, there are three things he especially loves to do. For one, he's an avid film-goer. He also likes to see a good play whenever he can. Either way, he'll often start with a nice quiet dinner because he enjoys dates that are "peaceful." A musician has to keep up with the latest trends, too, and David gets a great thrill out of seeing one of his favorite groups in concert.

SIGHTS & SOUNDS

Natural happenings are the one that please David most. He'll always remember his visit to the Grand Canyon, for instance. "It took my breath away," he says. "For about a minute I couldn't speak!"

David's a person who loves to be up in the morning—but for

(continued on page 60)