BARRY WILLIAMS had to give up his horse Ya-Teh-Ha. He explained, "if you can't spend three or four days a week with a horse, it isn't fair to him." Barry's busy schedule just didn't leave that kind of time. When he first got Ya-Teh-Ha, he wasn't yet working on "The Brady Bunch," so he did spend a lot of time at the stables. Now things have

John Evan of Jethro Tull—with his friendly duck. The pet was given to him in America.

By the way, all THE BRADIES enjoyed making their Christmas album so much, they can't wait to do another one. Also new and recommended in the record department: GEORGE HARRISON's "All Things Must Pass," "OSMONDS," CREEDENCE CLEARWATER REVIVAL's "Pendulum" and JOHN MAYALL's "USA Union."

CREEDENCE is planning tours that will take them all over the US, Europe and throughout most of the world. With records on the charts of 41 countries, they're one of the most internationally popular groups.

BOBBY SHERMAN wowed audiences all over Japan during his incredibly busy tour there... And another favorite of Japanese audiences, we predict, is going to be a top star in the US before long. Although he's still quite young, he's had loads of experience already. And he's a member of one of the most talented families in the busi-Creedence Clearwater Revival keep having hits. You've got to get their new albums!

10-year-old Jimmy Osmond wears a big grin as he plays with his dog, Fuji, an Akita.

Barry Williams likes the greenery in his yard. But could he keep his horse there?

changed. "The only way I could have a horse now," jokes Barry, "is to keep him in my back yard!"

While on the subject of pets, SUSAN OLSEN has a new dog named Rontu, one eighth collie, the rest German Shepherd, and extremely well behaved.

ness. Who is he? If you haven't guessed already, he's JIMMY OSMOND.

The latest addition to the OSMOND clan was born on November 1st, just three hours after the end of Halloween. His name is Jared, and he's the son of George Virl, Jr., the oldest of The Osmond Brothers' other brothers. And Jared has a brother Aaron, who's almost David Cassidy looks like he's in the best of health! Maybe scuba-diving keeps him trim!
