

YOU Talk To DAVID CASSIDY!

Hi! This is my page. I'll be writing a special column right here in every issue of TEEN WORLD just for you. It's the place where we can get together and talk about what's happening with me and my friends from "The Partridge Family"—or anything else you want to talk about. I love to read your letters... and I hope you like to read my answers. So here are some of them...

Brenda Sizemore of Green Castle, Missouri, writes:
Dear David:

I watch you every Friday on "The Partridge Family" and I think you're great. David is such a beautiful name! Please tell me—did you ever do other television shows?

Yes, Brenda, I did quite a few guest shots last winter. Some of the shows I appeared on were "Ironside," "The F.B.I.," "Bonanza" and "Marcus Welby, M.D." I'm sorry you missed them, but I'm glad you like "The Partridge Family."

Laura Benetau of Windsor, Canada, has a lot on her mind:
Dear David:

I saw a picture of your dog Sheesh in TEEN WORLD and I think she's very pretty. We have two dogs at home and I love taking care of them. How do you take care of your dog?

Actually, Laura, I have two dogs, too—Sam and Sheesh. They're male and female and they get along fantastically. In fact, I think they're in love... which brings me to the most important thing about caring for pets—treating them with love and making sure nothing (continued on page 60)

This is YOUR page, too. You can write to David, ask him anything you want to know about "The Partridge Family," himself, members of the cast, his past or future, his opinions—anything! Send your letters to TALK TO DAVID CASSIDY, TEEN WORLD, 201 Park Avenue South, New York, N.Y. 10003. Then keep watching this column for your letter—and David's own personal answer!
