

The Editor's Page

Good heavens, the news came from all over this month!

Rock Hudson's fascinating non-interview came to us from our San Francisco correspondent, Pat Rogalla, who almost got to talk to him on the set of his current movie. We laughed like crazy at Rock's fear of our Pat—she's a very shy middle-aged lady! (Sorry about that, Pat.) Anyway, don't miss it. We think you'll laugh, too.

Lucie Arnaz was tracked down by our Associate Editor Sylvia Resnick at the famed spa, La Costa. Lucie was all too willing to reveal her most private thoughts about her marriage. Lucie may be young (19), but she sure knows what she wants in life. You'll find it all on page 18.

Jack Martin, Our Man in London, sat down with Richard Burton for an astonishing interview (if anything about the Burton's can astonish you!). Burton not only talked about Liz' fat problem—which is not too unusual for him, the tactless brute—but also how he and Liz feel about their sex changes in their up-coming films. Read about it on page 24.

Palm Springs was the location of our interview with Eva Gabor on that burning question: What Makes A Gabor A Gabor? Our writer caught her there for lunch between tennis games. Eva wasn't just willing to talk about what went into the makings of herself and her fabulous sisters, but she also shares with us some photos from her private album. Turn to page 20 to find out what those Gabor Gals looked like as tots. You'll be surprised!

Our new Assistant Editor Lynne Brennan nabbed Juliet Mills for the interview on page 32 at a film symposium honoring David Lean at the Museum of Science and Industry. Juliet's dad, Oscar-nominated John Mills, was host for the event. Anyway, Juliet was so taken with our Lynne she invited her home for tea.

Our Gal Pat (of Rock Hudson fame) also took a quick trip to New York this month, where she button-holed Bobby Van and Ruby Keeler Backstage On Broadway (page 34). Everyone who has ever taken a tap lesson will be delighted with this journey into nostalgia. Ruby's No No Nannette is a smash on Broadway, but nobody should have been surprised. Haven't we all missed the Busby Berkeley gang?

Editor Bonnie Rogers greets Mannix' Gail Fisher at Peter Hurkos' front door.

The stories on Ryan O'Neal (page 26) and David Cassidy (page 28) are special in-depth looks at these two exciting young men. Members of our staff researched and wrote them—but not from secondhand material as some other magazines do. Sheri Paul, who wrote the piece on Ryan, has known him personally for seven years—ever since he got his start on Peyton Place. Sheri also knows both of his wives, not to mention some of the other romances in his life. And the writer of David Cassidy's Frustrated Search For Love knows him well. They've talked almost daily since David landed his big role on that super series, The Partridge Family.

Managing Editor Judy Wieder has a wild interview for you on page 14. It's all about what happened behind the scenes during the filming of Jacqueline Sussan's book, The Love Machine. What with the original star being zonked on his noggin, Dyan Cannon rupturing her eardrum, and . . . well, read the story. Star Sharon Farrell tells all!

And we are very thrilled with our exclusive Sexposium on page 44 with the two foremost and popular authorities on sex—Dr. David Reuben (What You Always Wanted To Know About Sex But Were Afraid To Ask) and Helen Gurley Brown (Sex and the New Single Girl.) Hollywood has always been thought of as the mecca for those with sexual problems, as well as the source of the great sex symbols. Our session with Dr. Reuben and Helen took place at the Hollywood Brown Derby, which is sort of a symbol itself. This article is not for the timid, nor for those who are easily offended. Dr. Reuben and Helen don't pull any punches. When they're asked something—they answer!

Be sure and catch the columns, Rona's Hot and Cold Flashes, Our Private Dick and our movie and book reviews, too. They're chock full of goodies. And psychic Peter Hurkos had an amazing experience this month when he gave Mannix star Gail Fisher a private reading.

And if that's not enough, don't miss us next month.

B.R.