

Door with David Cassidy!

When David is working on the lyric part of his songs, he goes to his bedroom, tunes his guitar and starts to work. In fact, David loves music so much that instead of having a headboard at the head of his bed—like most folks do—David has two gigantic speakers!

In the still of the night, David often lies awake until the wee, small hours, listening to music and creating beautiful fantasies—other worlds into which you and he can gently glide and find a few moments of joy, peace and privacy!
