Yes, she is. Shirley is married to David's father, actor-singer Jack Cassidy.

ALL ABOUT BURT

I think ABC-TV's "Dan August" is just great and I really love Burt Reynolds, who stars in it. Will you please tell me when his birthday is and also where I can write to him?

Burt celebrates his birthday on February 11 and you can write to him at:

ABC-TV

A MEDICAL PROBLEM

I like many of the medical shows on TV, but my favorite one is "The Interns." I'm crazy about Chris Stone. Please tell me where he was born and if he plans to continue acting.

Linda Matterazzo, Medford, Mass.

Dear Linda:

Chris is a native of Manchester, New Hampshire. Though he did have hopes for a career in baseball earlier in his life, Chris is really happy doing what he is right now and intends to stick with it.

STAR LIGHT

New Year's Eve, but he enjoyed having dinner with his family and seeing FLORENCE HENDERSON in "Song of Norway." Barry may go duck hunting in Mexico with some friends soon. And in the meantime, he's taking advantage of the "Brady Bunch" shooting break to go skiing at Mammoth.

It must be moving season in L.A. DAVID CASSIDY's moved into a new house. And RICK ELY's busy decorating a new pad in West Hollywood.

Chances are excellent that BOBBY SHERMAN will be back on television next season. There was a fantastic reaction to his "Partridge Family" guest shot, a spin-off for a role of his own as a song writer. More news on this as it happens . . . THE LENNON SISTERS are doing a pilot for a half hour daytime show called "Living With The Lenons." And DENNIS COLE is to star in the movie "Powderkeg."
