REBELS CANCELED!

DAVID TO DO CONCERTS!

JACK BACK TO PUFNSTUF!

ABC-TV has decided to drop The Young Rebels, starring RICK ELY and PHILIPPE FORQUET. Though the network wanted very much to keep the show on, Rebels fell victim to bobbling ratings—and sponsor trouble caused the demise of the show. The only thing that can be done to save Rebels now is for someone to purchase ten minutes of "sponsor commercial" time, but at $60,000 a minute—well, who can afford it?!

COWSILL NEWS: Scorpio PAUL COWSILL, birthday November 11, was more than pleased with the speedy Triumph convertible he got to celebrate becoming 19 years old! . . . BILL and his lovely wife KAREN are happily expecting their first-born early this spring . . . By the by, pretty little SUSAN is letting her hair grow out—long, long, longer . . . Meanwhile, the whole COWSILL family (excluding Bill, who is raising Irish setters in Tulsa, Okla.) are singing their hearts out at gigs all across the country—and still trying to decide which of the several record company bids offered them to accept . . . And speaking of expecting, lovely BRIDGET HANLEY and her husband, director E. W. SWACKHAMER, expect their first-born early in March. Bridget and "Swack" have just moved into their great, big, beautiful home in the San Fernando Valley.

FLASH! If you loved loved loved JACK WILD as "Jimmy" in the H. R. Pufnstuf TV series—well, here's good news! Jack may be back on the Pufnstuf series in the fall of 1971. The persistent KROFFT brothers—producers and directors of Pufnstuf—are trying to get Jack to agree to return to the United States and star in their series again. The same Krofft brothers are also trying to sign MARK LESTER for a TV series called Lidsville . . . BARRY WILLIAMS may branch out from the Brady family to include in his many activities hosting his very own teenage syndicated television variety show—more 'bout that later.

DAVID CASSIDY may leave The Partridge Family just long enough to go out on the road with his own rock 'n' roll band to do concerts—hopefully this spring. Now, don't get confused—that does not mean he is quitting the show. It simply means that besides being on The Partridge Family, David may be doing live concert tours. Keep your fingers crossed . . . And if you're a Partridge Family and Young Rebels lover, here's good news—there's a series of paperback books out about the adventures of each of these favorite TV shows. Ask for Volume One of The Partridge Family and Volumes One, Two, Three and Four of The Young Rebels in the paperback section of your local bookstore. If these volumes aren't available there, you can order The Partridge Family (Volume One) by sending 60¢ (plus 10¢ for postage) to: Books Department, Curtis Circulation Company, 641 Lexington Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022. If you want to order any of the Young Rebels volumes, tell your local book dealer to contact Ace Publishing Company, 1120 Avenue of the Americas, New York, N. Y. to find out how the Young Rebels volumes can be ordered.

Lovable LARRY McNEELY, that fav-rave of The Glen Campbell Goodtime Hour, has got his very first LP out. It's called Glen Campbell Presents Larry McNeely and it's available on Capitol Records . . . Take a good look at handsome newcomer JIM KIDWELL (you saw him on several episodes of Headmaster late last fall), because you'll be seeing lots of him on TV soon—and maybe even be hearing him on records, because Jim can play guitar and sing up a storm! . . . Hope you caught the ever-lovin' OSMOND BROTHERS on their CBS-TV Glen Campbell stint. Don't tell anybody, but little JIMMY stole the show . . . Don't miss BROWNING BRYANT when he does a singing guest shot on The Ed Sullivan Show this coming March 28. That Bryant boy gets better looking every day . . . And say "hi" to a couple of super-popular TV families—My Three Sons and Family Affair. You can write to Three Sons regulars BARRY LIVINGSTON, DON GRADY, STANLEY LIVINGSTON (and the rest) at CBS-TV, Hollywood, California. Same address goes for ANISSA JONES, KATHY
