

DAVID: "WHY I'M AFRAID TO MARRY"

■ "You know," David Cassidy mused between takes of The Partridge Family, the ABC-TV series which is made at the Columbia Ranch near Burbank and the Screen Gems studios in Hollywood, "I'm me. I know that's the important thing. I also know that this tremendous thing that's going for me now will fade out and I can't let it go to my head. What would I have left if I did—when it's all over?"

Well, among other things he'd have his acting career which is more important to him than singing, though he's serious about music and works at it. He plays acoustic guitar and spends a lot of time in jam sessions with his friends, improving his technique. He doesn't go out in public very much because he's always recognized and besieged, and then too he enjoys the home scene.

He lives in a comfortable house in the Hollywood Hills with his best
