Q. Can you please tell me what Roger Davis did over the summer while "Alias Smith and Jones" was on hiatus? He's one of my favorite actors!

A. Roger is one of our favorite actors too, and we're happy to say that he kept quite busy during the "Alias Smith and Jones" hiatus! Roger flew to New York to do voice-overs for several television commercials, and among them is a current one for Close-Up toothpaste. Incidentally, Roger's co-star, Ben Murphy, participated in a ski tournament with James Brolin during hiatus, as well as appearing in "The Moon is Blue," a summer production in Lubbock, Texas.

Q. I love the DeFrancos and want to know when all of them were born! Can you help me out?

PAT

Q. I used to love watching Pat Carroll in the "Getting Together" show with Bobby because she reminded me a lot of my own mother. Please tell me if she's married in real life and give me a little information on her. Thank you.

A. In real life Pat is Mrs. Lee Karsian, and she's the mother of three—Kerry, Tara and Sean. They make their home in Beverly Hills, and are all very conscious of today's ecology problem. Pat likes to read and play tennis in her spare time, and she's blonde-haired and blue-eyed, and stands 5'6" tall.

Q. Can you tell me if there's a fan club for the Fifth Dimension?

Q. How old is Mike Lookinland of the "Brady Bunch?"

A. Mike is 11 years old and was born December 19, 1960.

Q. Can you tell me the age of David Jones' little girl, Sara? My girlfriend thinks she's about two years old now, but it seems to me she was born in 1971. Who's right?

A. You are! Little Sara Lee Jones celebrated her first birthday July 3rd of this year!

Q. I saw Bill Mummy in "Bless the Beasts and Children" and flipped like I've never done before! Please tell me all you can about this super-groovy guy!

A. O.K., that sounds like a good idea! Bill was born right here in Los Angeles on February 1, 1954. He stands 5'8" and weighs a slim 124 pounds. When it comes to food he likes prime rib, chocolate eclairs and root beer, and his hobbies include anything from writing songs to scuba diving! You may write to Bill at P.O. Box 67516, Los Angeles, California 90067.

Q. I hear so much about "Martha's Vinyard," a favorite place of James Taylor's, but I don't know what it is. Can you help?

A. "Martha's Vinyard" is indeed one of James' favorite retreats, and that's where he does a lot of his rehearsing and song-writing. It's a private little place out in Cape Cod, where James owns a large amount of property.

TAYLOR

BARRY

Q. I saw Barry Miller in the TV pilot, "Miss Stewart, Sir," and went absolutely crazy over him! Any information you can pass along would really be appreciated!

A. Barry is 14 years old and was born February 6, 1958 in Los Angeles. Despite his youth, he's been in entertainment for quite a few years, and got his start on the old Bill Cosby series. A. Surprisingly, Bobby's concerts are so much in demand across the States that he has little time to spend in Los Angeles! His biggest L.A. concert was at the Forum in Inglewood, but most recently Bobby entertained at a benefit for the Cardiac League at Pasadena's Civic Auditorium!

BOBBY

DONNY

Q. Is it true that Donny Osmond tried to elope by lying about his age? If it is, I'm going to be very sad!

A. No, Jimmy was the only Osmond born in Canoga Park, California!

A. You can write to the "fabulous four" at the Twentieth Century Fox Studios, where the movie was filmed! Just address your letters to them in care of 10201 W. Pico, Los Angeles, Ca. 90064.
