Paul and Linda McCartney not only recently announced the birth of their newest baby girl—Stella, born on September 17 at London's King's College Hospital—they also announced the formation of their brand new group, which will be called Wings. And their first LP is hot off the presses—it's called Wings and it's on the Apple Label.

After Michael Cole and long-time steady Paula Kelly tied the knot in Beverly Hills on September 2, they changed their plans about not having a honeymoon and dashed off to Acapulco for a few days. Now Michael and Paula are comfortably settled in their home in Encino, California.

When Presidential Adviser Henry Kissinger recently took his two youngsters on a tour of Hollywood, the first place they asked to be taken was the Columbia-Screen Gems Ranch, so they could meet their favorite performer—Bobby Sherman.

Later, the lucky Kissinger kids—David, 10, and Elizabeth, 12—dropped by the studio next door to meet and get autographs from another one of their faves—adorable David Cassidy of the PF gang.
