IMAGINE having the opportunity to spend four days at the side of the sensational Partridges! Nothing could be more exciting than that, right? Wrong. Imagine having the opportunity to spend four days with the Partridges that already hold lots of wonderful memories for them . . . to sort-of re-live four very special moments in their lives! And here goes . . .

THE FOURTH OF JULY PARTY

All the Partridges agree that when it comes to throwing a party, Dave Madden might possibly be one of the best in all of Hollywood. In case you're wondering how they arrived at that conclusion, just ask them about that get-together he gave on the Fourth of July at his home in Malibu.

"Wow," David says with a bright smile, "I really had a fantastic time that day. It was one of the best Fourth of July celebrations I've ever been to!"

The rest of the Partridges share David's enthusiasm—and with good reason. True beach lovers and true friends, they feel that nothing can beat a California day of fun in the sun, especially when it's spent together. And because this rocking TV family is just as energetic off-screen as on, it's not too surprising to find out they spent most of the day on the go.

"I ran about ten miles that day," Danny says with a mischievous look in his eyes, "racing with David across the sand. Of course, David only ran about eight miles because I was the one way
