

guess. Although I must admit that some girls I've known (wet kissers!) should take a few lessons from somebody!"

MIKE GRAY: "I'll volunteer"

STAR MAG: "That sure is nice of you, Mike! You're all heart! Now here's the next question. Bet we get a few chicken-outs on this one! WHAT IS YOUR SECRET 'KISS-ME' SIGNAL?"

JERMAINE: "Now we are getting embarrassing!"

STAR MAG: "Jermaine, you promised!"

JERMAINE: "Okay. Wow! Let's see...I guess I let a girl know I want to kiss by the way I look directly into her eyes and don't take my eyes from hers until we're kissing."

MIKE J: "Ooo-eee, Jermaine! Are you BAAAD!"

JERMAINE: "Yeah? Well, suppose you tell next, then!"

STAR MAG: "Sure! C'mon, Michael!"

MIKE J: "Well, I just take her hand, and smile at her real soft.. and then...I kiss her!"

JERMAINE: "Mike, you're the one who's BAAAD!"

DAVID: "If I have a secret Kiss-Me signal I don't know what it is. Usually when a girl and I kiss, it just sort of happens all by itself."

BUTCH: "I hate to admit it, but...well... my Kiss-Me signal is: I blush!"

DONNY: "So do I!"

STAR MAG: "How about you, Michael Gray?"

MIKE GRAY: "All I want to say is: my Kiss-Me signal? They'll know it when they see it!"

STAR MAG: "We're sure none of your fans will be in doubt when they find themselves face to face with you, Mike. Maybe they can spot it in one of your STAR Magazine pinups in this issue! Guys, WHAT IS THE SEXIEST KISS-TECHNIQUE?"

DAVID: "I think gentleness in everything you do when it comes to love is the best technique. And with kissing it's the same. You should touch lips very gently, and just let the warm electrical current of your feelings pass between you. There's really no right way or wrong way, no sexy way or unsexy way. It's all in what's going on in your head for the other person."

JERMAINE: "I think a kiss should always have plenty of SOUL in it. I don't fool around when I kiss. I want the girl to know that I really dig her and that she's really important to me."

STAR MAG: "Okay Michael, you're next!"

MIKE J: "Well, I like kisses on the cheek. I think they're Old Fashioned and outasight for that reason!"

MIKE GRAY: "I agree with all you guys, but I think you've left out one kissing technique that's really great...the Surprise Kiss! I like to surprise a girl with a kiss every once in a while. It's always a gentle kiss. Like, sometimes, if we're at a movie, she may turn to me to tell me something and well, she's being kissed in the dark. Or at the beach she might hand me a hot dog and a coke, both hands full, and have to stand there holding them while she's being kissed. The Surprise Kiss. It's always great!"

BUTCH: "I prefer to take a girl in my arms very deliberately. A kiss can make a girl feel protected and safe. That's the kind of kiss I like to give most. And my girl will want to snuggle in my arms for a long time afterwards."

STAR MAG: "Here's the last Great Kiss Debate question. And in a way, it may be the hardest one of all to answer. WHAT DOES YOUR KISS TELL A GIRL ABOUT YOUR SECRET SELF?"

JERMAINE: "No one could ever really answer that about himself. Only the girl you kiss could really tell that. But if I were to guess what a girl would say who really understands me, I think it would be: "Here's a guy who talks tough but is really a gentle loving guy inside."

BUTCH: "I hope it tells that I really respect girls as well as like them. I think that Love lives in girls in a really super way, and every boy must find a way to come to really understand that."

MIKE GRAY: "The right girl when she kisses me will know that even though I may be kind of tough to other girls, with her I could only be kind and tender. She'll realize that it's her personal magic that gets to me and keeps my wilder side from ruling me as it so often does."

DONNY: "I just want the girl I'm kissing to know that, maybe just like she is, I'm searching for the meaning of Love too. I'm really hoping to find a girl who will want to find out about Love along with me."

DAVID: "I want the girl I'm kissing to realize just one secret thing about me. That one thing is: whoever I kiss, whether she's a fan at a concert who, chances are, I may never see again, or whether she turns out to be the girl I'll marry and kiss forever. I want her to really and truly know that my Love for her is as deep and sincere as my love for singing and for all the beautiful things there are in this whole world."

MIKE J: "It's just like Jermaine and Butch have said. I want a girl to know the real me. Not the guy who sings onstage or in an album. I mean the very personal Michael Joe Jackson who will someday be in Love forever with this girl he'll be kissing. You won't often hear me say it out loud, maybe because it's such an Old Fashioned way to think, but I want the girl I'm kissing to really know that I truly and deeply believe in Love."

The Great Kiss Debate has lots of thoughts for you that you may agree or disagree with. Whoever said what turned you on or off, write to him in care of STAR Magazine, and tell him exactly what you think!

The Great Kiss Debate
c/o STAR Magazine
8490 Sunset Boulevard
Hollywood, California 90069