

David slips into his soft, white boots just minutes before he's due to go on stage! Notice he has two pair with him, just in case!

DAVID! DAVID!

Then it happens! The arena lights suddenly go out and the crowd starts screaming! Then David comes out of the dressing room door, almost running! He bursts on stage with a dozen spotlights focusing only on him! Thousands and thousands of flashbulbs are going off! The whole auditorium is alive with girls calling his name! They're sending all their excitement and energy directly to him! It's fantastic! It's overwhelming!

WHAT DAVID'S LIKE ON STAGE!

When David's on stage, it's almost like he's another person from the gentle and quiet young man that I was just talking to a few minutes before in the dressing room. This David Cassidy is moving, dancing in the brilliant spotlight beams, and singing his heart out! I'm running around at the bottom of the stage snapping pictures! (If you've been at one of David's concerts you've probably seen me!). Above me, on stage, David is totally and absolutely concentrating on his fans!

DAVID'S AMAZING MAGIC!

When David's on stage his energy is amazing! He's really turned on! The super-energy that David generates on stage has a lot to do with the love he gets from his fans. For instance, at the Florida concerts, 10,000 girls were focusing all their love, energy, and emotions right at him! That's a lot of good vibrations! The audience's love drives David ever higher! Like a champion athlete who hears the cheers of the crowd and works his hardest to win, David always does his absolute best because he's so completely happy and into what he is doing for everyone! He really responds to the audience, like very few performers can or ever do!

You're seeing David in the very last moments before he goes onstage! This is the time he's all alone, preparing himself to entertain 10,000 girls!

DAVID'S INNER FEELINGS ON STAGE

David really, really digs singing for you. It's a very personal thing for him. During the concert, I really enjoy watching the faces of the girls in the front rows! Each girl is responding to David in such a personal way. Laughing! Crying! Screaming! Dreaming! When he sings, "I'll Meet You Halfway", David reaches out his hand, and every girl reaches out her hand to him! Each one knows that somehow, in his oh-so-magic way, David is singing right to her!

When David is on stage he actually sparkles. It's not just the lighting effects or his groovy beaded and fringed white singing costume! It's the glow of his beautiful, super-exciting personality that's turning on ten thousand people all at once!

DAVID'S LAST SONG!

Suddenly you realize that this is David's last song! Suddenly everyone is crying! And now, not wanting to, David runs off-stage and out to the limousine which is waiting with its engine running at the back door of the concert hall. Zoom! And the concert you'll remember all your life is over!

HOME TO HOLLYWOOD!

Finally it was time to go. At the airport the pilot had started the engine on the big super jet and the stewardesses were doing their best to hurry David along. Just before boarding, David signed autographs for fans who came to the airport to see him off. He stepped onto the plane with his little gray suitcase in one hand and his panama hat (which he sometimes wears as a makeshift disguise!) in his other hand. Up until the last minute that he had to board the plane, David was waving to each and every girl there. They all waved back, and then we were off for Los Angeles and the second half of our 10,000 mile journey with David!

David in Concert

DAVID GETS READY TO APPEAR!

After the first half of the concert was finished, it was intermission. David would be on stage next! Backstage, David went into his dressing room. He always gets dressed in his concert outfit backstage, right before he goes on, so that his groovy singing costume is uncreased, absolutely no wrinkles or imperfections! David insists on trying to look perfect for your eyes!

GIRLS SCREAMING!

While David is getting dressed you can hear the girls in the audience yelling "We want David! We want David!" And David is just smiling, as he zips up his boots and pulls on his shirt getting himself primed for the big moment when he will bound out onto the stage!

DAVID'S MOMENTS ALONE!

Right before David goes out to meet his fans onstage, he likes a few moments completely alone. Everyone clears out, and I'm usually the last one to leave, snapping photos up 'til the last second. I don't see him again till he's on stage. David's told me that when he's all alone in his dressing room, he can relax his mind and soul. That's how he gets himself set for going out before 10,000 screaming, deliriously happy girls! He calms himself and gathers his energy for the big moment.
