

No matter where David goes, even if the two of you are staying at a groovy secluded hideaway, his career will always catch up with him. That telephone will ring and David will have to answer it. But whoever is calling, you can be sure David will be nice to them, as will you!

David's a human being with emotions just like yours. He has different moods. Sometimes he'll be deeply thoughtful and quiet. At those times he'll love you most if you're quiet, too. You'll be able to tell when he's this way by the far-away look in his eyes. Can you read his mind?

Some girls would feel afraid if their husband had to go on TV with other big stars (like Glen Campbell) as David does! They'd cry and make it tough for David! This would put David uptight and he couldn't give the audience his happiest and best! As David's wife, would you share his delight in appearing before his fans and never be jealous? David will love you ever so deeply if you're understanding!

David will take you with him onto The Partridge Family set! You'll be chatting with David's fellow Partridges! And there'll be lunch on the set! Imagine yourself by David's side everyday!

Don't be surprised if you're out somewhere with David and suddenly you find that he's surrounded by adoring fans! They'll be so excited, they may even try to lift him up and carry him away from you! Will you be jealous or understanding?

Someday, a strange girl will take David's hand! His eyes will smile! They'll talk and laugh! Is she an old friend? A new Love? This will be your greatest test as David's wife! If you stay cool, he'll tell you all about her, and assure you that no old girlfriend can ever compare with you!
