

DAVID & The Partridge Family

WOULD YOU LIKE to share a few fabulous hours "behind the scenes" with your favorite TV family—the Partridges?! C'mon and hop aboard SPEC's magic carpet for a soaring trip to Hollywood—where David, Shirley, Susan, Brian, Suzanne and Danny will share their very private pix with you!!

Who's this? The laundryman? It's none other than dynamic David Cassidy, about to put away the towels and sheets which he himself carefully folded after running them through the washing machine and damp dryer! So now you know—besides being a brilliant actor and an excellent singer, David is a heck of a good laundryman!

Whoopee—nothing like a nice cool dip after a hot day in the laundry room! Here's a candid shot of David stretched out on the flagstone walk beside his beautiful swimming pool! So hop into your swim-suit and join the sun-fun!

When David first found out that his real-life step-mom, Shirley Jones, was going to be his TV mom, "Shirley Partridge"—he was delighted! David's real-life dad—actor-singer Jack Cassidy—married Shirley some 15 years ago (after David's real mom, actress-singer Evelyn Ward, and Jack were divorced). David, his real mom, dad and step-mom—and David's three half-brothers, Patrick, Shaun and Ryan—enjoy a close and abiding friendship.
