

YOUR

PAGE

WELCOME to Your Page—the section where you get to express your love for your favorite star! Departing from our usual custom of featuring poems, this month Your Page is turned over to Spec-er Lea Ann Steele of Seattle, Washington.

Lea Ann bought herself a book telling "how to analyze handwriting," and although she may be an amateur at her new hobby, wait'll you read all the true-to-life things she found out about her two fav raves—Donny Osmond and David Cassidy!!

Remember: If you'd like to "put into print" your feelings for your special star, send your poems, letters, stories, etc. to "Your Page", SPEC Magazine, 745 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022.

Until we meet -- love, Donny O.

DONNY is cheerful and optimistic—and he is very ambitious. He likes being with people—and he is affectionate, sensitive and emotional. Donny is practical and precise. He is careful and considerate—and Donny never lets a situation get out of hand. He has lofty aims and dreams. Donny is not very materialistic; he is able to cope with the realities of life. Donny is easy-going, but he is not afraid to fight for his rights if necessary. Donny is fond of people—neither shy nor pushy—he has a well-balanced, uncomplicated personality. Donny is very spiritual; he is gracious and friendly. Donny is frank, generous and talkative. He is obedient and exacting. He is very sincere about his work—and Donny can keep a secret.

Yours Always David C.

DAVID is usually cheerful and positive, and he is quite ambitious. He can love deeply; he is self-reliant, but he is never snobbish. David has good manners, poise and lots of charm. His thinking is clear and logical. David is a person whose ideals and aims are not in conflict. He has a realistic approach to life. David is a peace-lover—and he is very gentle. He is sensitive and refined. David is gracious and friendly. He is enthusiastic and humorous. David is sincere—and he can keep a secret. David is very protective about those whom he loves.