All aboard—for a sneak trip into the world of David's private thoughts, dreams and desires, where you can find out not only what makes your top favorite tick—but also what you can do to get closer closer and even CLOSER to David!!

Listen when David talks. David doesn't talk very much and when he does—it's because David really has something to say—something he wants you to hear. So if you're chattering, you won't hear what David wants to tell you — he'll deduce you're not interested and he won't want to see you again.

Be romantic. Be even a little sentimental, if you want to. Don't be afraid to write letters with words like "dearest", "love" and "my darling" in them. But do be honest in your romanticism—don't be gooey and gushy—just be honest. If you care for David, tell him so. He likes that.
