about Columbia Ranch for years in Tiger Beat, I was finally there myself!

"The set was very busy and all the Partridge stars were busy filming! Sharon sat us down somewhere where we could have a nice view and went off to let David know I was here!

"I saw David smile at Sharon and give her a wave, and then he looked across to where I was sitting and flashed me the most beautiful smile I've ever seen!

"OTHER PARTRIDGE STARS"

"You can be sure my heart was beating so fast I almost couldn't hear everybody talking! David had to film the scene for a long time, but in the meanwhile I had a chance to meet Susan Dey, Shirley Jones, and all the other Partridge stars!

"They're really great people and so nice to talk to! Especially Susan Dey. She's just as beautiful as I thought she was and we started discussing everything from the show to politics!

"Then, before I knew it, I saw Sharon and David coming toward us! My head began spinning around, but I remembered the most important thing of all—not to get hysterical! I felt like jumping up and down for joy, and when David took my hand for the very first time, and said, 'Hi Sue, I'm really glad to meet you!' I thought I wouldn't be able to speak! But I swallowed once, and somehow found the words and the courage to say, 'I've been waiting to meet you a long time!'

"At that first meeting, David leaned over and gave me a kiss on the cheek. I think I must have been glowing from head to foot, 'cause he squeezed my hand warmly and said he'd be right back as soon as the scene was finished!

"After filming stopped for a lunch break, David took my hand

"I GUESS YOU CAN tell from the expression on my face how excited I was when Tiger Beat editor Sharon Lee introduced me to David for the first time! Later on David took my Aunt, Mrs. Arnold, and me to a super lunch at Yankee Pedlar Restaurant (see below)! We both ordered the same thing!"

BELOW: "DANNY showed me how all the mechanical equipment used in filming a show works! Here I'm listening to the last scene's dialogue."

BELOW: "SUSAN DEY is such a marvelous person! We talked and talked like we'd known each other for years instead of just for a few hours!"
