PARTRIDGE fan club NEWS

EXCLUSIVE

Each month read all the fan club news about the Partridge Family right here in Cecelia Bonaduce's column!

What's the latest Partridge sport? That's a good question . . . and I just happen to have the answer! How does tennis grab you?

That's right, the Partridges have taken up tennis! It all started when Juel Anderson, the social worker on the set, introduced the game to the three youngest Partridges, who took to the game immediately!

Suzanne Crough liked the game so much that she started taking lessons! Brian Forster said that he likes to play on the set, and has a brand new racket.

"I really like playing tennis, although I'm not that good yet! But off the set, I hope to be a great surfer one day, so most of my energy goes to surfing, not tennis!" And with that, Brian was off to the tennis court, his second love!

PRACTICES EVERY DAY!

Danny Bonaduce has made the most progress of the new tennis fanatics! He practices everyday, along with his mother! "Neither mom or I ever played tennis before, but we practice whenever we can. It's great exercise, and a lot of fun too. Mom says that I'm better than she is . . . I hope so!"

DANNY HOLDS everyone's attention during a short break in taping!

Danny has been thinking of following in Suzanne's footsteps, and may decide to take lessons too! He said that this is the first sport, aside from horseback riding, that he's taken a big interest in!

Susan Dey confessed that she used to play tennis in New York, but rarely plays in California. "Actually," Susan said, "I don't play tennis, I play with it! When I lived in New York, our neighbors had a court, so I played all the time, but I don't get much of a chance to play out here. With all this new enthusiasm for the game, though, I'm sure somebody will pull me into a game soon!"

Shirley Jones overheard Susan's conversation, and immediately invited her to a tennis match over the weekend! "Where would we play?" Susan asked.

"Haven't you ever been in my back yard?" Shirley answered. "I have a tennis court!" I asked Shirley if she played very often.

"Well, usually, I'm very tired after working all day, so most of my tennis time is on weekends. I'm not very good, but my sons are excellent!"

Susan naturally accepted the invitation, and whispered that she'd better brush up on her tennis, before the game! "I'm very rusty . . . and I don't want to lose by too much!"

It was rather amusing, because I heard Shirley say the same thing as she walked away! Dave Madden was my next target for the million dollar question, so I walked right up to him, said hello, and asked:

"I'm taking a survey, do you play tennis?" Dave said, "No, I don't. The most exercise I get is pressing the button on my camera when I'm out taking pictures! I may not look like I'm in perfect health, but I've got the world's strongest picture-taking finger!"
