

DAVID'S MAGIC SPOT--

HOW TO SHARE IT

David has a magic spot
He wants you all to know,
And everytime you're sad and blue
Feel free to let him know--
"cause David has a special place
Where Mr. Woe can't go!

RIGHT NOW YOU'RE saying, "What's a Magic Spot?" Well, it's not really such a big secret. It's something that David has—but a lot of other people have too. And once you know about David's you can share it with him if you like. But first you'll have to know what it is and how to get there. So—what are you waiting for? Start reading!

David's always on the go. He has a very busy life between his TV rehearsals, concert rehearsals and appearances, in-person gigs—like photo and autograph sessions—and time to work on his music, writing his own songs and all. Somedays he doesn't even have a chance to scratch his head—that's how busy he gets. Does all this get him down? No, of course not. Because not only does David really love his work, but David has his own Magic Spot where everything is groovy and peaceful, and he can go there whenever he likes.

Can you guess where it is? Is it in California, in David's home that he shares with Sam Hymen and Sheesh? Is it in New Jersey where David's grandparents live and where he lived until he was about 5 years old? Is it in some mystical magical country like Arabia or India?

No! No! No! David's Magic Spot is always with him, wherever he goes. Can you guess now? It's in his own heart! And that's where he goes when he feels hassled or blue or worried or pensive. He retreats into his own heart and the little place he has that he always keeps calm and cool and special. No matter what happens to you in your outside world, you can always keep a secret place inside yourself where nothing can go wrong. In fact that's the secret behind David's smile. He has his down days—just like you have yours—but he's never (continued on page 64)
