

THE JACKSON FIVE THE PARTRIDGE FAMILY THE BRADY BUNCH

Jackson, born on May 4, confesses to being glad he's a part of such a large and happy home. He wouldn't trade that experience with anyone in the world. Pretty Eve Plumb, born on April 29, says she likes appearing in "The Brady Bunch" for that precise reason—her large TV-family has become very close with her and she digs the domestic scene. The sign of the bull is very appropriate to Jackie—once he's made up his mind that's it! He took forever to decide whether he wanted to be a professional basketball player or a member of a singing group. Now that he's made his decision, he's stuck on it. Everything he does centers around the group and he even wants to go into record production. Taurus is the sign of the tireless worker—and that's Eve. This petite blonde amazes everyone with her tremendous stamina and she never quits despite the most strenuous routine. Besides rehearsing her TV show, Eve has joined the other Brady kids in a singing venture—they're working on an album, incorporating some of the songs from the show. In addition to this, she has her regular schoolwork and her outside interests, such as reading, horseback riding and wood sculpturing. Everyone who has worked with Eve calls her dependable, reliable and tenacious. She will never let anyone down! Both Jackie and Eve have little patience with laziness. People who promise things and then back out drive them up a wall. The way to their hearts is to be direct, diplomatic domestic, dependable and treat them lavishly. Taureans love to give and receive expensive gifts—they're the all-time snobs!

Taureans are adept at everything domestic—cooking, gardening, home repairing, managing a family—and would rather sit with their loved ones in front of their fireplace than travel to the glamorous capitals of the world. Jackie
