PLEASE NOTE CAREFULLY: All of the dates are subject to change without notice. In order to verify David's actual performance in your town, carefully read the daily newspaper and look for ads several weeks in advance of his appearance. Also listen to your local Top 40 radio station for news and information regarding David's upcoming concert.

If you live in or near a town where David is appearing, you usually can get ticket information from an ad in your local newspaper or from a broadcast by your favorite deejay over your favorite Top 40 radio station. Do not write to 16 or SPEC Magazines for ticket information. Instead, stay very alert to your local news outlets. If you don't see or hear an announcement of David's upcoming concert—at least three weeks ahead of time—call your local newspaper, your favorite Top 40 radio station, the actual hall, arena or auditorium where David will be appearing and ask these people to give you full information on how to get your tickets by mail order or in person.
