

DAVID CAUGHT IN THE ACT

Take a look at these hotter than hot pix of David Cassidy doin' his most sizzling shows ever—for his raving British fans! Wearing heavenly new costumes, and backed by a group of musicians (named The Whole Damn Band) he put together just for his current European tour, David has generated more energy than a nuclear reactor! He pulled out all the stops in performances so wild that they touched off a wave of Cassidy-mania all over Europe! Unfortunately, David has said that he will never perform in America again, so you might not ever see David's new supersex machine in motion! So look long and lovingly, cos here he is, forever—caught in the act!
