David Cassidy Giant Gift-a-thon!

Here's David holding some of your gifts!

Throughout David Cassidy's extraordinary career, he's collected many prized possessions. He's been waiting for the very day he'd be able to give them to you—and only you!

In all the years David has been in show business he's never forgotten that you're the one responsible for his phenomenal success! His fondest wish is to find some way to repay you and that wish is now going to be fulfilled! Here's how David plans to show his appreciation:

First of all, David wants to make sure that you can always have him at your fingertips! He's sending you a complete set of all his albums, both solo discs and the recordings made with his TV family, The Partridges, PLUS—the original pressing of the PF's Up To Date album, lovingly autographed by David, of course! (This last recording is truly a "collector's" item!)

David also wants you to know that you're always very close to his heart and to show you, he's giving you one of the shirts he likes most—this tie-dyed T-shirt—and the belt and pouch you see him holding in the pic. There were specially selected by David at the beginning of his career on one of his visits to New York, and he's saved them for you until this very day!

THAT'S NOT ALL! David has gotten together his favorite big and beautiful glossy photos of himself—childhood pix, photographs taken of him in his early days as "Keith Partridge," photos of him as he looks today—AND he's sending them all along to you!

David's saved the best for last, though, but this final present must remain a secret! It's just too private and too personal to put down on paper! Just remember that David's super-secret surprise is something you'll treasure and love forever!
