

Tony Roberts, general manager of Warner Brothers Music, U.K., also picked up rights to Carly Simon's Quackenbush Music for worldwide administration. The catalog holds all her original composition releases on the three Elektra albums. He is also negotiating with Lee Phillips for David Cassidy's own publishing firm which includes several Cassidy compositions.