NOW THAT JERMAINE JACKSON's solo Motown LP Jermaine is such a super success, which Jackson brother do you think will be the next to record alone? Rumor has it that JACKIE is already working on a solo LP of love songs, TITO's doing an instrumental one featuring blues, and MARLON's will be something like MICHAEL's Got To Be There—a pleasant mixture of eminently likeable songs. Don't worry your pretty little head about the J5 breaking up though, this fabulous fivesome is more together than ever!

DAVID CASSIDY's visit to London, England early this fall was a super success. It seems the lovely English ladies fancy David as much as you do! Everywhere David went, scores of British lads and lassies turned out to see their PF fav in person. DAVID stayed on a boat moored on the famous Thames River, so he could be sure of his privacy. While in London, DAVID filmed Top Of The Pops and a BBC documentary David Cassidy Around London. Hope both these super shows come to our shores soon!

DAVID's not the only super-star headed across the sea this season—rumor has it that those ever-loving OSMONDS are on their way any minute now for another guest appearance abroad. Plus which, the J5 have been invited to give a Command Performance for the Queen on October 30. You can be proud, SPEC-ers, for making all your top teen favs internationally famous!

The surprise of the season came earlier this fall when JOHN PRINE—singer, songwriter supreme—was appearing at New York's Bitter End. During his week of fabulous concerts, several of his friends stopped by to join him on stage, including STEVE GOODMAN, DAVID BROMBERG and none other than BOB DYLAN! ... Speaking of heavies, NOEL REDDING (formerly of the Jimi Hendrix Experience) stopped by to say "hi" to lovable RICK SPRINGFIELD at a party in RICK's honor. If you haven't already, be sure to pick up RICK's Capitol LP Beginnings.

Say hello to ANSON WILLIAMS, a brown-haired, blue-eyed, twenty-year-old wonder you'll be seeing lots more of in the future. Check your local TV listings to find ANSON, cos he'll be appearing on the Paul Lynde Show soon, and he's liable to crop up on your screen at any time! ... Have you heard TERRY WILLIAMS' great single on MGM, Melanie? Watch for a new LP from this charmer too. TERRY can also be heard with the FIRST EDITION, featuring KENNY ROGERS, on two new FE albums, The First Time and Rollin'. Pick up on 'em all!

Have a gander at good-looking MARJOE. Didja catch him in HOWARD SMITH's first movie venture of the same name? It's a thriller, all about a foot-stomping, Bible-thumping circuit preacher. But don'tcha fret if you missed MARJOE in this one—he's slated to be in lots more movies soon. And, he recently signed to Chelsea Records with WES FARRELL—maybe he'll be the next DAVID CASSIDY!

Another good-looker to feast your eyes on is gorgeous MARK SPITZ, seven Gold Medal winner in The 1972 Summer Olympics. MARK broke all previous Olympic records with his swift swimming. No need to put on your bathing suit to catch this stunner or to fake a cavity to go see this dental student cos the big movie moguls are after MARK to star in yet another Tarzan release!

RIDDLE OF THE MONTH: Which top teen performer is going semi-steady with a co-worker in his TV series? The funny part is, you never see her on the screen—but off-camera, you'd swear you were seeing double!
