

DAVID INVITES YOU— “COME WITH ME TO ENGLAND”

Late last Fall when the Partridge Family cast was given a few days off, where did David Cassidy go? To London, England—that's where! It happens that all three of America's darlings—David, Donny and Michael, and don't forget the Osmond and Jackson clans—are the super-triple-fav-raves of merry olde England. So when David decided to drop by for a friendly visit, naturally the town turned itself upside down for him!

Guess what this is! Give up? It's the yacht—yes, yacht—that David rented, parked in the Thames and lived on during his London visit.

Would you believe it? This is what the sight-seers looked like who rented boats to float by and ogle David!

You recognize him, of course. That's our boy David "Keith Partridge" Cassidy—and that beautiful big bridge in the background is called London Tower Bridge.

First stop, a friendly visit to one of England's top radio personalities, David Hamilton, where David (Cassidy, that is) broadcast a "Radio One" session.
