

DAVID'S SECRET LOVE LIFE

David—in his "suit of lights."

The girl is tall and blonde. David's friends would refer to her as "slightly older"—but his forthright fans would openly call her "an old woman!" She definitely has access to the backstage area and she definitely was seen waiting in David's limousine while he attended a press conference before the show. She positively was identified as the same girl seen at the Los Angeles Airport with David before he left for England—and she was the very same girl that was seen with him leaving the Los Angeles Airport once he had come back from England!

Who is she? The truth of the matter is—nobody knows. Not even David's closest friends. Not even his mom. And certainly not any of the many other girls whom David Bruce Cassidy often dates. So, for the time being, the "mysterious blonde woman" in David's secret love life will have to remain a mystery to one and all!

DOUBLE-LOVER

But wait—there's yet another girl in David's life.

She looks just like David. She has hair, eyes and features like his. She is about the same size he is, but weighs a little less. And she walks and even talks like David!

What's more—she's on the set with David every single day and recently has shown up in his on-tour hotel suite and was even seen hanging around backstage at one East Coast concert, while David—wearing his fantastically beautiful new "suit of lights" concert costume—was on stage wildly entertaining thousands of adoring young fans.

Who is she? Her name is Jan Freeman and she is David "Keith Partridge" Cassidy's double on the Partridge Family series. It was probably inevitable that David and Jan would start to notice each other in a manner other than their friendly brother-sister on-the-set way. Absence may make some people's heart grow fonder, but in David's case it's the other way around. The more he sees someone, the more relaxed with them and close to them he feels. So no one was really surprised when Jan started turning up on the "social scene" with her "show biz" constant-companion—David Cassidy!

WHERE DOES THAT LEAVE YOU?

Lots of David's fans really get upset and jealous when they hear that he's dating this, that and the other girl. But if you look at the record carefully you'll see that though David is friendly with every girl he's ever dated, his romances have never really lasted for very long. His quest for a constant companion—"The Girl"—is still unanswered. So don't be jealous, don't shed tears and don't think you don't have a chance, cos David's a young man and he has a long way—a very long way—to go in his romantic life! Who knows, you may be the next big secret in David's love life!
