

the television set!

... or, what's up with your television friends!

DAVID CASSIDY just keeps getting greater and greater. Why? Because he has a GREAT heart! As all of darling DAVID's fans, that Partridge boy has served on many committees to help retarded children and other worthy causes. But did you know that DAVID gives more than just money? He actually gives of himself! How? Very few of DAVID's fans know this, but he spends at least a few days a month working in Los Angeles hospitals with handicapped children! Yes, DAVID's cheerful smile brightens the day for many of these unfortunate youngsters. A close friend of DAVID's revealed to TIGER BEAT that children are very close to DAVID's big heart and that DAVID feels a special obligation to children who may not be as healthy as others. So if you hear anybody putting DAVID down, just tell them this and see what they say then! Let's face it—DAVID's just a super-terrific guy!... Another Partridge, SUSAN DEY, caused a big, big stir when she appeared at a local awards show, the Golden Globes, on the arm of DALE McRAVEN, the Partridge Family's script supervisor. SUSAN isn't saying how serious it is with DALE, but many reporters on the scene say they saw "the look of love" in beautiful SUSAN's eyes... The Paul Lynde Show's JOHN

CALVIN admits he has a new hobby—water skiing. "I was kind of scared to try it at first," JOHN laughs, "because I'm just so clumsy. I didn't know whether I'd be able to stand up straight on those skis. But after a few falls, I actually managed it and now I really think it's a gas!" So you know what that means, girls—if you want to catch JOHN, better head for the water! Quick!... Poor CHAD EVERETT! CHAD is one of Hollywood's favorite doctors on TV's Medical Center, but now it looks like he might have to go to court! Seems a 40-year-old "actress" is charging that CHAD is the father of her child and is suing CHAD for support payments. Don't worry, though — CHAD's lawyers assure TB that this ridiculous charge will be tossed out of court faster than a baseball!

DAVID HOLMES' handsome face will be a familiar sight on TV real soon!

IS SUSAN on the verge of a merge? She and Dale McRaven aren't saying!

CHAD's wife, SHELBY, is standing by her husband's side to show the world SHE certainly doesn't believe the charge! It's really sad that a groovy guy like CHAD has to be subjected to this kind of embarrassing situation. But that's the risk of being a world-famous idol before the eyes of millions!... SONNY AND CHER have a brand new hobby—clothing! Yes, CHER says she's seriously considering launching her own line of pretty women's clothing. Since CHER is always getting compliments for her gorgeous outfits wherever she goes, you can be sure THE BONOS would make a pretty penny if they got into that business! In the meantime, SONNY is all "wrapped up" in something else—namely CHER's newest album. SONNY told us "I want it to be very special. It has to be exactly like CHER—warm, sexy, and alive!" If that's what SONNY captures on record, that record will be a guaranteed million-seller, right?... All In the Family's SAL-

LY STRUTHERS has a REALLY interesting confession: "I'm an ice cream addict!" SALLY beams. "I can't pass up a fountain anywhere!" Well, at least we know now who'd be the perfect match for adorable SALLY—a soda jerk!... Bridget Loves Bernie's DAVID BIRNEY and MEREDITH BAXTER only get closer and closer these days. One of our spies spotted the daring duo at a Hollywood Italian restaurant chomping away on spaghetti. But from what we're told, DAVID and MEREDITH were more interested in each other than what was on their plates! Watch
