RING AROUND THE MIDDLE! Nearly everyone—including all your favs—has at least one! It is, after all, a most vital piece of equipment—without it, many a pair of pants would fall to the floor, and you can just imagine the embarrassment that could cause! What is it?—why, a belt, of course! This ish, SPEC peers into some famous mid-sections to find out just what kind of belt your favs pick to encircle their winsome waists! Which belt hugs which famous fav?—aha! that's for you to figure out (with the aid of some brain-teasin' hints, natch). Look at each belt pictured here, read the hint below the pic—when you think you've notched up the correct answer, write the fav's name in the space provided. Answers are on page 64—but no fair peeking til you're done!

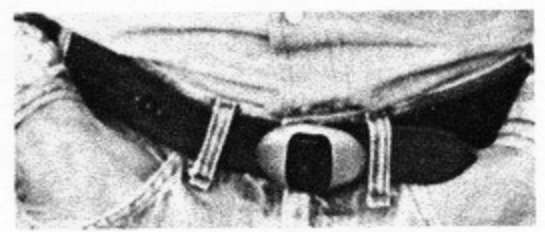

BUCKLE'S

UP!

(1) This silver-buckled belt was part of a "cowboy" outfit worn by a very famous TV and singing star when he was in England, playing cricket!

(1)

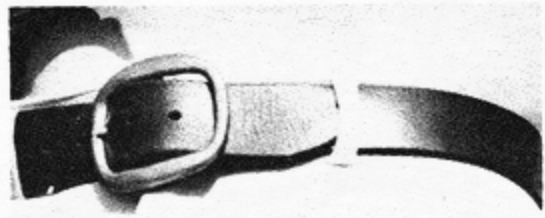

(6) This casual kinda leather belt is oft found 'round the oh-so-sexy waist of a blond-haired TV and movie actor extraordinaire who has a hyphenated (-) first name. Also, he just became a dad.

(6)

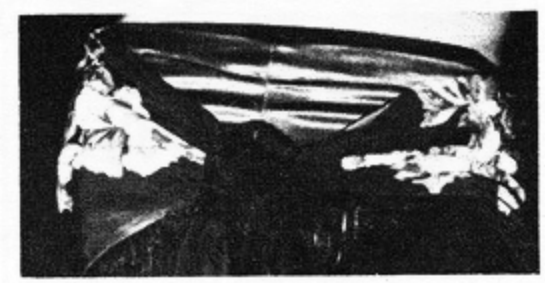

(2) This fire-engine-red-headed singer often wears far-out stage costumes—this belt is part of one such "scandalous" costume! P.S. He's on RCA records and shares the same name as number one.

(2)

(4) A solid black leather belt represents lots of "macho"—masculinity—and that's just perfect for the bearer of this one! He's a fav who comes to your rescue each Saturday eve and who's definitely all man!

(4)

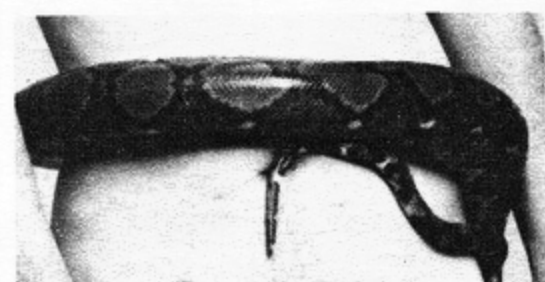

(7) This sash-belt belongs to one of the most outrageous rockers in the world—he's best known for his wild antics like smearing his body with peanut butter (!) and jumping into his audience! He's on Columbia records and his latest LP is Raw Power.

(7)

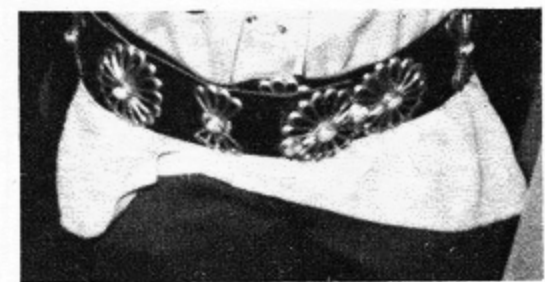

(3) Here's an easy one (or two!)—a pair of brightly-colored belts, in the latest style, worn by a pair of brightly-rising stars! One of their first names is identical to both numbers one and two!

(3)

(5) Ve-r-r-y interesting, this "snake-skin" belt worn here—mainly cos the snake is still inside, alive and kicking! Now, who else could this one be but—

(5)

(8) Flower-buckled belts are just one of this red-headed, freckle-faced TV-star's favorite things. Others include french fries, chocolate shakes, Susan Dey and driving his TV family absolutely nutty!
