

HE TOOK ME FOR GRANTED

Dear Susan:

How can I go about getting back an ex-boyfriend? We broke up a couple of months ago because I thought he was beginning to take me for granted. I'm miserable without him, and realize I was wrong.

R.G.

Kansas City, Missouri

Dear R.G.:

Start hanging around the places you know your ex will be. When you see him, be sure to turn on the old charm—but not so much you'll suffocate him. If he responds, you'll be able to see if the old spark is still there. If it is, you shouldn't have much difficulty in renewing your relationship.

Dear Susan:

I am absolutely crazy about David Cassidy. You're so lucky working with him every day. None of the guys I know measure up to David, so I'd rather stay home and listen to David's records or watch him on television than to go out with anyone else.

M.W.

Salem, Oregon

Dear M.W.:

I also think I'm lucky getting to work with David every day. He's a wonderful friend. But I do think you're wrong to limit yourself to just dreaming about David when you could be dating some groovy guys close to home. You would still be David's fan, but you'd also be having more fun.

HERE IT IS!

the super all-new

STAR ADDRESS BOOK

Are you tired of writing to your favorite stars and having your letters returned? Well, now you can be sure that your letters will reach them. This Book contains the most recent addresses of all the stars you care about!

Don't waste your time sending letters to the wrong places—Order your copy of the All-New STAR ADDRESS BOOK today and find out all the latest ADDRESSES of your favorite STARS! ★

HURRY – SUPPLY IS LIMITED!

Send me _____ copies of the STAR ADDRESS BOOK. I enclose $1.00 for each book ordered. Add 25¢ for postage and handling. (Outside U.S.A. send $1.50 per copy in international money order.)

Name _____ TB-11-73

Address _____

City _____

State _____ Zip _____

Send to: STAR ADDRESS BOOK
Drawer L
Hollywood, Calif. 90028