

Star Bright

same time. Well, not really, because the Elvis who landed at Heathrow Airport in London and stepped into a waiting rented Rolls Royce turned out to be a fake, but no one got wise until well after he'd fooled even the hard-to-bluff BBC radio and TV network.

Singersongwriter Austin Roberts has moved to Tennessee in hopes of getting into the Nashville sound. Austin's written songs for the Osmonds, Sonny & Cher, and the Williams Twins, and had several of his own records out. And he just looks like a teenager. Actually he's in his twenties.

PLUMB ROLE: Eve Plumb picked a plum of a role for her movie debut. Watch for her as the girl co-star of the upcoming "Huckleberry Finn" movie. And speaking of The Brady Bunch, did you catch the TV commercial Barry Williams did? I forget what the product was but I remember him in the swimming pool! J-5 RUMOR: You've probably already heard the rumors about members of The Jackson Five having some type of run-in with the police. Take my advice and forget 'em because this really didn't happen. It turned out that friends of the J-5 were questioned about something or other, but the J5 were not involved and went off to do their bang-up smash summer tour of America.

MISS ALICE COOPER? Poor Alice's been called lots of things of late, mostly by parents and the press but he firmly denies that he's ever appeared off stage or on in girl's makeup. "We wear mime makeup," he insists, meaning that the group's "look" is patterned after that particular avenue of theatrics. Speaking of theatrics, Alice almost lost his poor head a few times on tour, but made over six million dollars!

LITTLE BITS: Guess who Kevin Tighe is dating—none other than former child actress Patti McCormick... The Raspberries guested on "The Midnight Special"... Rumors continue that the Beatles will go back together and a revival of Beatlemania is expected to be one of the next big national crazes... schoolkids in L.A. sponsored a Stop Smog celebration with Len Nimoy as guest star... David Cassidy's dad Jack finally got his diploma from Richmond Hills High in Queens, NY... Watch for Twiggy to fly high in a musical movie of "Peter Pan"... Watch for good sounds from The Waltons' Jon Walmsley who is very seriously into music and about ready to turn professional... And I don't mean a professional freckle (I can say that cuz I truly lov Jon's freckles and everyone else's)... The Heywoods played several concert dates with the Osmonds this summer and lots of their own including quite a long stand at Disneyland... John Calvin, that infamous son-in-law from "The Paul Lynde Show" did lots of theatre work around the country of late... Didja know John used to be a tree surgeon?... The Carpenters have their eleventh gold record in four years... Bobby Sherman has signed with a new agent in Hollywood and a big one, which may give his career the guidance it could certainly use... David Cassidy's road manager, John Monte, is a doll, or did you already know that?... It's not on paper yet, but look for Mick Jagger to star in a movie about Merlin the Magician... Neil Young's movie "Journey Through The Past" is well-liked on the summer film festival route, but the name of his film company's even better... It's called Shaky Pictures... Everyone knows what happened to Dino and Desi, but you may not know that Billy (Hinsche) is now playing keyboards with The Beach Boys... If an artist sells 50,000 records in Holland he has a number one hit and the Osmond Brothers' "Crazy Horses" sold four times that figure... Ringo Starr's directed a movie called "Son Of Dracula," and if that doesn't sound crazy enough, it stars Nilsson... That's it for this issue and love from Hollywood.
