

DAVID: WILL HE

You've watched David Cassidy's career from its beginning, over four years ago . . . but soon you won't see him every week on TV. Will he be forgotten, like other superstars of the past? Decide now!

JANUARY 1970

David makes his first television appearances on series like "F.B.I." and "Medical Center." It was a real thrill for David to get his first taste of working behind the camera!

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

DAVID played young delinquent on "The F.B.I." with Efrem Zimbalist.

CHAD Everett talks to David on segment of "Medical Center" in 1970.

ONE of the biggest events in his life, David's appearance in "Gunsomke"!

MAY 1970

The first interview of his life! It was for FaVE Magazine, Tiger Beat's sister publication!

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

JUNE 1970

Working with Wes Farrell as his producer, David records the Partridge theme, and his first single record, "I Think I Love You," which was to be a million seller!

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

SEPTEMBER 1970

The "Partridge" show debuts and, instantly, millions of girls fall in love with David! David gets a chance to work with Shirley, his stepmother, and becomes fast friends with the other members of the cast.

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

MARCH 1971

A nervous David steps onstage in front of thousands of fans in Seattle, Wash., for his first concert! It only takes a few minutes for David to realize that he really is a superstar!

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

DAVID CASSIDY'S

OCTOBER 1971

The first Partridge albums, featuring David, sell like wild . . . ratings on the show soar!

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?