

BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

FEBRUARY 1972

His popularity is spreading in Europe, and David leaves for his first European tour!

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

MARCH 1972

New York City continues David's string of successful concerts with his Madison Square Garden smash show!

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

JUNE 1972

David's pin-up picture appears in "The Rolling Stone" magazine, underlining David's interest in finding a new image for himself.

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

NOVEMBER 1972

David's first solo album, "Cherish," reaches even more fans... David Cassidy Fan Clubs spring up all over the country!

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

JANUARY 1973

"Rock Me Baby," David's "new me" album, is released. David writes and sings songs that are very different from the Keith Partridge image that fans are used to.

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

APRIL 1973

David announces his plans to drop out of "The Partridge Family." Thousands of letters flood the studio, begging him not to quit!

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

SEPTEMBER 1973

David's longtime wish to live in Hawaii is coming true, as David buys land there and helps design the dream house he'll build someday soon.

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

FEBRUARY 1974

David tapes his very last "Partridge" episode and says goodbye to his friends on the set.

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

FEBRUARY 1974

David's first World Tour! He visits Europe, Asia, Australia, ... everywhere but the United States.

WILL HE BE FORGOTTEN NOW?

IT'S UP TO YOU! You are the fans that made David what he was at the very height of his career, and you can keep him on top, too! David wants to know how you feel... will you forget him now that he's not Keith Partridge, now that he wants to expand his career and be more than just a teen idol? If you're going to stick by David, write to: David Won't Be Forgotten!, Tiger Beat Magazine, 7060 Hollywood Blvd., Hollywood, Calif. 90028, and let us know!