Well, was I ever thrilled to run into RANDY MANTOOTH when Kathy Cohen (TB's Assoc. Ed.) and I went up to Universal Studios, to pick some great color slides on the "Emergency" gang! He told us all about his brother DONALD guest-starring on the show and we'll have more on DONALD in the next issue! RANDY's a very nice guy. He's quiet and serious most of the time, but when he smiles, don't you think he's extra handsome!?!

DAVID Cassidy received awards from Tony Prince of Radio Luxembourg for his album "Dreams Are Nothin' More Than Wishes," and "Daydreamer!"

Visited the PARTRIDGE set for the last time! It was really sad, even though most of the stars are glad it's over. PARTRIDGE had lots of internal problems after the first couple of years.

BOBBY Sherman had a chance to meet and work with Randy Mantoath and Kevin Tighe when he guest starred on an "Emergency" episode! Did you get a chance to see it? Bobby said working with them was really great!

FRIENDS GOT TOGETHER for a little fun bowling during "The Celebrity Bowling Tournament." "The Walton" gang was there and so were the "Brady Bunch" kids! Lots of Hollywood stars were there playing against each other and though there weren't any actual winners, everybody had a ball!

Tempers, personality clashes and things! SUSAN DEY by the way, cut her hair in a sort of tapered look. Do you like it? DAVID said it would be strange to get up in the morning and not have to go on the set after four years of it!

We'll miss the PF's and we're sorry they couldn't keep the show on longer! But, have you noticed there're a couple of new shows that might be just as much fun! For instance, "Apple's Way" with cute VINCE VAN PATTEN, "The Cowboys" with 7 gorgeous guys, and "Happy Days" with our RONNY HOWARD!
