

DAVID CASSIDY

TAKES IT ALL OFF!

When David wants to do something for sure, he doesn't just do it half way! When he decided to get his hair cut recently—that's just what he did—he took it ALL off!

DAVID LAUGHS because he's sure he's got his hair in good hands as a friend starts the shearing job off by giving David a shampoo. David, the wet-head, wonders one last time: "Is it the right look for me?" BELOW: David might look a little worried as he watches the barber trim away his locks (in his mirrored reflection)! He's wanted to cut his hair for some time!

"Too late to change my mind," Dave seems to say!

NOT BAD! What do YOU think? David thought it looked fine, but would you believe that next month he's going to cut it even shorter? Practically all off? We'll have scoop pix next time!
