

the television set!

... or, what's up with your television friends!

ANDY and DAVID WILLIAMS made their acting debut on the thirteenth segment of "The Partridge Family." In addition to their singing abilities, the talented brothers showed us that they could act as well. Since it was the last episode being shot this season, there was a party on the set with the WILLIAMS BROTHERS and DAVID CASSIDY in attendance. Just as we went to press we were told that "Partridge" WON'T be cancelled this season after all!

Emmy Award winner SCOTT

SCOTT HAS the best of one world, on screen—& now he'll be singing!

the best roles in his age and type category. In addition to his busy acting schedule, SCOTT attends Professional School in New York and is planning to cut his first record of rock songs. Next year he'll attend college in spite of the fact that he is already a very successful young man.

The dynamite new group HUDSON (recording on Rocket Records, ELTON JOHN'S label) have been keeping themselves busy at CBS. They just guested on a "Sonny and Cher Comedy Hour" show and have been filming a pilot called "That's How Movies Are Made." You'll be hearing of this threesome!

During his hiatus, "Sigmund and the Sea Monster" star JOHNNY WHITAKER starred in the "Puff-N-Stuff Hollywood Revue" at Madison Square Garden in New York City. His album "Friends" was just released and it's a must for your "Albums To Buy" list!

Have you seen THE NEW SEEKERS featured in the public service spot regarding the problem of cleaning up America? Filmed in Washington, D.C., the spot features the song "We've Got To Do It Now" which celebrates America's 200th Birthday. We think the song is such a hit that it should be released as a single. Don't you agree?

RICK SPRINGFIELD composed and sang all the songs on his "Mission Magic" animated Saturday morning show. RICK is presently working on his third album—when he finishes the writing, he'll jet to London to do the recording. His "Believe In Me" single on his "Comic Book Heroes" album from Columbia is really out-of-sight! While doing a mini-concert in St. Louis to promote his album, RICK was surprised and happy to see the faces of ANDY WILLIAMS and DAVE MASON in the audience.

RICHARD HATCH (who you've seen featured on "Room 222," "Marcus Welby," and "Kung Fu") and KATE JACKSON had fun shooting an episode of "The Rookies" together but there's definitely no romance. They began their friendship a couple of years ago when they were both in New York acting in soap operas. RICHARD appeared regularly on "All My Children" and KATE starred on "Dark Shadows."

Between his frequent appearances on "The Match Game" in the daytime and his role as HELEN HAYES' nephew on Universal's "The Snoop Sisters," BERT CON-
