

family now and it seems strange to even think about her not being MRS. MERRILL OSMOND—do you know what I mean? It seems like MERRILL's just always been married, he makes such a perfect husband! Oh, I've heard another rumor too, which I hope I can confirm for you by next month.

RANDY Mantooth & Bobby Sherman enjoyed filming an "Emergency" show!

I wanted to bring it up myself, because I don't like you to worry about things if you read them somewhere else! A very reliable source has indicated that the OSMONDS may NOT do anymore concert tours. They'll continue to do nightclub routines (Las Vegas) and record, but touring may be cancelled! This is certainly one rumor I hope isn't true! Wouldn't it be awful?

SPEAKING OF Bobby, he and Patti are expecting their second child soon. They hope for a girl. Bobby's producing a TV movie, "Earthquake!"

That's the first think I want to ask the OSMONDS about when I get hold of them! They'll be the only ones who can set us straight, because they always tell us the truth!

Pause. If you wonder what that was for, it was because while I'm sitting here typing this out, I've got the radio on, and they just played DONNY's single and I had to stop and listen to his dreamy voice! Sigh! Isn't he beautiful?

The "Partridge Family's" little RICKY SEGALL came up to the office for an interview and proved again what a little darling he is! He told me some stories he made up about mon-just about everyone in the business!

RICKY says he's more interested in singing than acting. That sounds just exactly like DAVID CASSIDY, doesn't it? I'm really glad that DAVID decided to stick out the season on the series, though I'm sad that after he does leave the show will either be cancelled, or will just continue without LITTLE RICKY SEGALL, who continues on "Partridge Family" for the rest of the season, was a recent mystery guest on CBS-TV's "What's My Line." Ricky did a good job at keeping the panelists guessing his identity, but they did! How many cute 4-year-old actors on hit TV shows do YOU know?

sters and when he tells a story he acts out all the parts! His monsters had gnashing teeth and mean faces! RICKY sat still for a half hour photo shooting and was just a perfect subject! Our super Tiger Beat photographer KENNY LIEU told me that, and KENNY should know. He's taken pictures of any new characters! I was hoping ANDY and DAVID WILLIAMS would be regulars, too, but seems lots of things aren't turning out super fine these days—in the show biz world!
