

MEOW!

BY SHARON LEE

Everything was practically perfect except for BO! He got sick on the ride back and later that evening when the group played at Disneyland he collapsed after the second show! He was rushed home and a doctor came to see him! The verdict: Working too hard!

ANDY and DAVID dropped by the office for a photo shooting and talked about their new movie "The Treasure Chase." They're off now shooting in Mexico, but before they left they told me about some of the movie scenes with a black panther and a real tarantula spider! The movie will be rated "G" and sounds like a real suspense and action packed adventure! It's scheduled for release around Easter time, and maybe that sounds like a long time away, but Tiger Beat will keep you posted on all the action! A and D are still getting taller—and more handsome each time I see them! They had their hair trimmed for the

to see some of them by now! I went on the set of "Korg" the other day and had a very interesting time! The show's on Saturday mornings and it's all about cave-men! Cute CHRISTOPHER MANN plays his uncle! The makeup the guys have to wear takes a couple of hours to put on and they wear these fur pieces "cave-man" style! The program is partly educational so you'll learn a few interesting things about early man!

I forgot to mention a while back that VINCENT VAN PATTEN and MICHAEL JACKSON are best of friends! VINCENT said they talk to each other on the phone all the time,

FOR SONNY AND CHER, it's splitsville—all legal now! In the top left pic, Cher and daughter Chastity went to Diana Ross's concert at the Amphitheater, Universal City! Chastity got up on stage to dance with Diana. Next pic: Cher and Chastity leave judge's chambers at courthouse after the Bonos had their 10 year marriage dissolved. And, last pic, Cher and new boyfriend, David, Geffen, after divorce finalment! Everyone at the courthouse seemed to be very depressed!

The prescription: Stay in bed for two weeks! So, the HEYWOODS had to cancel a few of their concert dates! BO's feeling fine now and the group has resumed its tour, but everyone was quite concerned for a while. Those HEYWOODS always seem to be coming or going. They need to take some time for a real vacation!

There are a lot of new television shows coming your way this season and maybe you've even had a chance and whenever they can they get together for an "in-person" talk! MICHAEL knows a lot of your favorite guys and girls and he's such a friendly young man he loves calling them up on the phone!

Did you enjoy our fashion this month on page 60? LIZA KNIGHT is a real nice girl to work with, and don't you think her brother CHRIS is getting better looking all the time? He was so mature and grown-up acting when he came by with his sister. It seems like just yesterday he was only starting his role on the "Brady Bunch." I took CHRIS and LIZA to the Hungry Tiger for lunch and LIZA said she doesn't have any show business aspirations herself! She wants to be a journalist! The littlest KNIGHT, DAVID, definitely has show business in his veins! I asked LIZA if a lot of girls at school approached her because CHRIS is her brother and she said, "No! Not too many of her classmates even know she's CHRIS's sister!"

Did you enjoy the "Hudson Brothers Comedy Hour" program? All those summer replacement shows that took SONNY DOESN'T look too happy as he leaves the court after the divorce.
