THE THINGS WE HEAR
AROUND AND ABOUT HOLLYWOOD!

When CLIFTON DAVIS, star of TV's "THAT'S MY MAMA," made his nightclub debut at "Sweeney's" in New York, he had his real mom in the audience as well as his TV mom cheering him on. . . . "HOT TIP OF THE MONTH DEPT." DARRYL COTTON, MICHAEL LLOYD and CHRIS CHRISTIAN have a wonderful new LP out on 20th Century Records called, "COTTON, LLOYD and CHRISTIAN." Not only are these guys great looking, but super talented as well. Their single which is called, "I Go To Pieces," is without doubt a #1 record and success couldn't happen to three nicer guys! . . . ELVIS PRESLEY and The Colonel turned down an offer of over four million dollars for (would you believe?) a one-night-stand in London, which was offered to them by the same English promoter who presented The BEATLES in their heyday. The reason ELVIS turned it down is that he and the Colonel have an agreement never to play any date where tickets go higher than $10 top. If that's so, why is ELVIS constantly playing Vegas where during the late show you get two drinks for no less than $25? . . . If ANN-MARGRET is such good friends with ROBERT STIGWOOD, the man who put up all the money for the "TOMMY" flick, then how come she's suing him for 7 Million $$$ in damages, for the time she cut her hand while shooting a scene in "TOMMY"? . . . A critic from the newspaper, the San Francisco Examiner, really let RYAN O'NEAL have it a few weeks back. The critic said, "RYAN O'NEAL let his 11-year-old daughter appear to ludicrous disadvantage in a plunging neckline dress during the Oscars." In other words, RYAN should be ashamed of himself for letting a kid her age walk out in front of millions of people dressed in an outfit that would look good on someone like RAQUEL WELCH! . . . "A Match Made In Heaven" would be the best way to describe the togetherness of DAVID CARRADINE and BARBARA HERSHEY SEAGULL. That's right—they're in love again! . . . News Bulletin of the month is that DAVID CASSIDY is writing a book about his trials as a teenage idol. . . . An angry BOBBY VINTON had all his lawyers working round the clock to find out who it was, that was making and selling a pornographic take-off of his "Melodies Of Love" album, and packaging it, in its original record cover, which by the way, has BOBBY's picture smiling out at you. . . . Once an OSMOND FAN, always an OSMOND fan! When the OSMONDS appeared in Tokyo, thousands of fans who couldn't get into the already over-crowded concert hall rioted outside. Police finally had to use tear gas to stop the kids from tearing the hall apart brick by brick. Those boys sure do pull in a loyal following! . . . Remember the TV show "LAUGH-IN"? It went off the air a couple of years ago, but it looks like it's coming back on. The show's producer has supposedly already lined up DESI ARNAZ JR. as a regular. . . . Congrats to ALAN and SUZANNE OSMOND who recently celebrated their first wedding anniversary! And, on this note, we'll sign off until next month!
