

Shaun lived with his mother until recently, when he bought his own house. Now he stops by often—especially when he wants a good meal!

A rock concert headliner for years, David is in a good position to advise Shaun about stardom. Shirley is “delighted” to be pointed out as their mother.