

Born: New York, April 12 1950

Height: five foot eight inches

Weight: one hundred and thirty pounds—nine stone four pounds

Eyes: Hazel

Hair: Warm Brown

Manager: James Flood

Recording Manager: Wes Farrell

Record Label in UK: Bell

First US single: "Cherish"

First UK single: "Could it be Forever" bw
"Cherish"

First Solo Album: "Cherish"

First Job: In New York garment trade when aged 17

First Stage Show: 1969 New York production "When Fig Leaves are Falling"

First TV Appearance: "Marcus Welby"

First Film: Planned for 1972—no title yet

Address: Secret—had to move three times

Earnings: £100,000 in 1971

Works: eighteen hours every day

Nickname: "SS" by friends on TV stage of "Partridge Family"—"SS" stands for "Superstar"

Humor: dry—sample—"I stopped smoking seven years ago"

Character: Independent

Dislikes: American food

Likes: Lobster—songwriting—acting—driving—swimming—talking

Performance: Prefers 'live' concerts

Favourite Clothes: T shirts and Jeans

Girl Friend: No steady

Ambitions: Serious acting—to further career as singer, musician and songwriter—to produce own records—to make a really good film