

David Cassidy Has Surgery; Appearance Here Canceled

The scheduled Saturday night appearance of David Cassidy at the Dane County Coliseum was canceled today by Herb Frank, local booking agent for the show.

Cassidy, the 21-year-old singer who stars on the "Partridge Family" television series, was taken to a Hollywood hospital Monday night for emergency gall bladder surgery.

Frank told The Capital Times this morning he is "trying to get a replacement" for Cassidy, but said that there is only one singer he is willing to accept in Cassidy's place.

The agent said he could not divulge the name until it is determined whether the replacement, who is scheduled to appear in Milwaukee Sunday, is available for the Saturday night engagement here.

If the substitute will not be able to appear, Frank said, all plans will be canceled and money will be refunded immediately.
